

HOMESCHOOLING

HOMESCHOOLING HELP

As schools across the UK close once more, the reality of juggling work, family life and home-schooling can be tough. To lend a little support, we've collated the ideas and tips from the parents across the NEC into this handy guide.

HOMESCHOOLING HELP

FIVE MINUTE MUM

This parent blog is fantastic for busy parents juggling work and homeschooling. Lots of genius 5-minute activities for fun and education.

VISIT BLOG

www.fiveminutemum.com

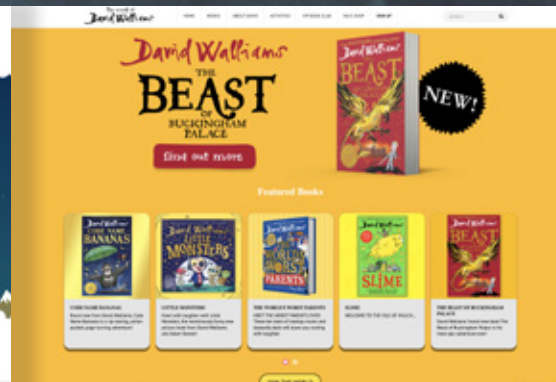

THE MATHS FACTOR

Trust Carol Vorderman to make maths fun for 4 – 12 year olds. Take advantage of the 21-day free trial that begins as soon as you register.

FREE TRIAL

www.themathsfactor.com

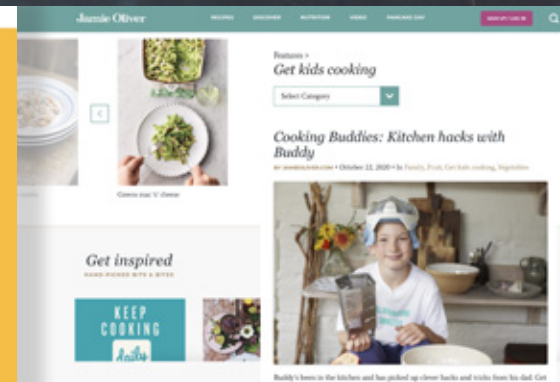

WORLD OF DAVID WILLIAMS

David Walliams has recorded a series of audio books which you can play the children whilst you are preparing lunch. He also has some great activity packs on his website too.

LISTEN NOW

www.worldofdavidwalliams.com

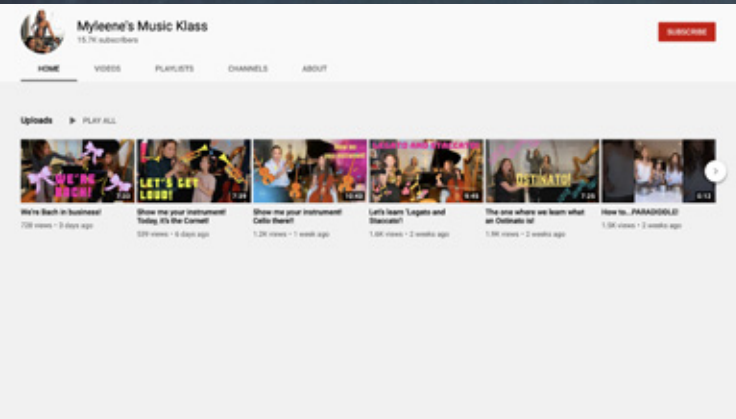

COOKING WITH JAMIE AND BUDDY OLIVER

Jamies Son Buddy has been in the kitchen with his dad and has picked up some clever hacks and tricks. Find out more and get inspired to do the same with your little ones.

TASTY RECIPES

www.jamieoliver.com/features/category/get-kids-cooking/

HOMESCHOOLING HELP

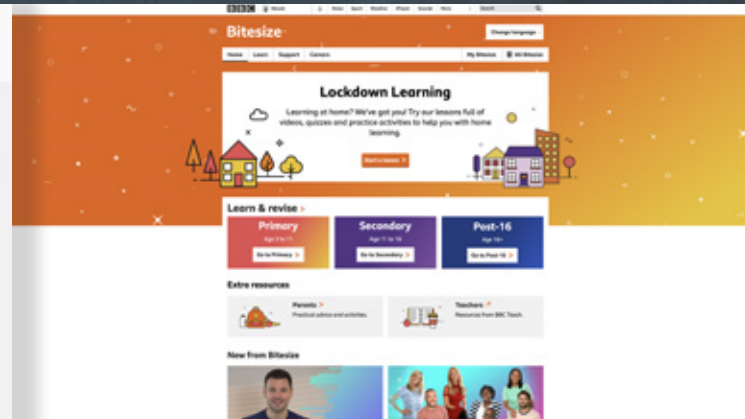

MUSIC WITH MYLENE CLASS

Get the kids to try a different type of lesson during their home schooling day as Mylene Klass brings us a curriculum based, no instrument required music lesson.

WATCH NOW

www.youtube.com/channel/UCQh2wgJ5tOrixYBn6jFXsXQ

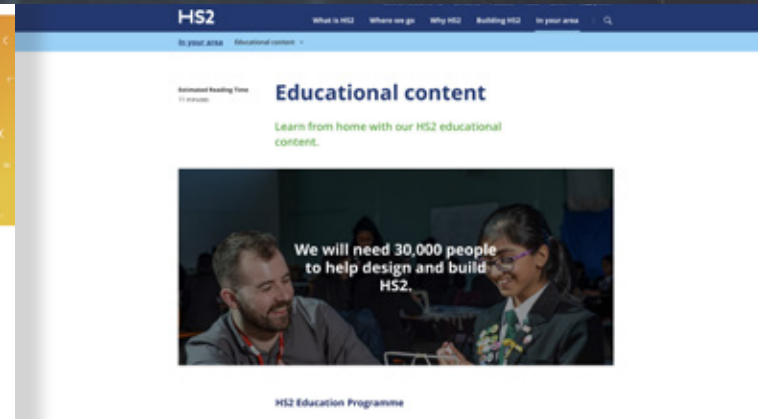

CBBC

With many children once again learning from home, BBC Bitesize is on hand to help take the pressure off homeschooling.

They have lots of easy-to-follow lessons, as well as collections of resources for all ages.

LESSONS

www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/dailylessons

HS2

Coming soon to the NEC Campus, our friends at HS2 have developed a range of curriculum-linked activities that could make interesting projects to work on at home.

HS2 ACTIVITIES

www.hs2.org.uk/in-your-area/education/